

HEALTHY ALL YEAR SITEMAP

after payment the site home needs to change to course intro and this page would change to member account info and sharing the site via social accounts to encourage friends to learn about this course after payment this navigation item needs to change to have a dropdown of all the course sections for convenience

TECH NOTES

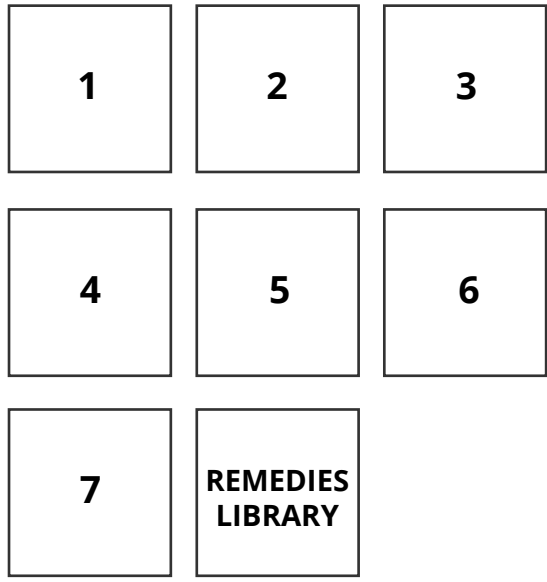

Hosting (same as avivaromm.com)

Payment method: Stripe or PayPal and members via InfusionSoft

This site will feature a forum via a WP plugin for single login

We may need to move members who own this course if we develop a second site

The course pages will serve as the template for the others, so still used in the parent site
